Retreat Theme

In light of Supreme Knight Carl Anderson's successful new book,

A Civilization of Love:

What Every Catholic Can Do to Transform the World, we will reflect on and celebrate the vocation to Christian Marriage.

Because we are married in the Lord, each couple is called to be a sign of love to others, to make a difference . . . transform the world . . .

The qualities evident in the Culture of Love which Mr. Anderson describes – self-responsibility, self-denial, hard work, unconditional generosity and steadfast dedication – are also essential in successful marriages.

We have learned that marriage calls us to help one another be holy . . .

Join us for a day celebrating the blessings of the Sacrament of Matrimony or our families and for the world, as well.
